The legal basis for education in the Fort La Bosse School Division is vested in the will of the people as expressed in the statutes of the province; the statutes pertaining to education, court interpretation of the validity of these laws, and the powers implied in them.

The official name of the Division shall be:

Fort La Bosse School Division

Where the Minister deems it advisable that any school district should constitute a division, the Minister, by his written order, may establish a division comprising that school division alone.

Effective on, from, and after the first day of January 1972, the Fort La Bosse School Division will be established as a School Division within the meaning of the Public Schools Act. The School Division constitutes a body corporate which possesses all the usual powers of a corporation for public purposes, and in that name may hold and sell property and real estate, and enter into such obligations as are authorized by law.
