The Board recognizes its responsibility to the community that created the Board through the electoral process.

In that regard, the Board of Trustees will meet annually as a Committee of the Whole to confirm goals and guidelines of operation and budgeting for the following year. The Board will also review its performance during the past year and its ability to continue its objectives.

Furthermore, the Board will accept the additional responsibility of the self-evaluation of its policies by assessing the effectiveness of the methods and practices that govern such policy and policy-based decisions. Such evaluation will be accomplished through the efforts of its committees, either standing, special or advisory, and through other evaluation procedures as deemed appropriate by the Board.
