From time to time, and for a variety of reasons, a vacancy occurs due to an incumbent Trustee's being unable to complete a term in office. This vacancy, however, will not impede the Board in the discharge of its duties.

No resolution, by-law, proceeding, or action, of a Board of Trustees is invalid or will be set aside by reason of any person whose election as a member thereof has been annulled or declared illegal under the Act or any other act of the Legislature, or who is not qualified under the Act, as the case may be, having acted as a trustee; and, where the seat of any trustee becomes vacant, the remaining trustees will carry on the work of the Board until his successor is elected and takes the oath of office.

The Board may, depending upon the length of the unfulfilled term, make up a committee of three Trustees to interview and make a recommendation of person(s) interested in filling any Board Trustee vacancy.

A trustee elected to fill a vacancy holds office only for the period of the unexpired term of the Trustee being replaced.
