The budget preparation will be the responsibility of appropriate committees and administrative personnel.

The committees and respective administrative personnel will draft the preliminary budget, following which it will be presented and reviewed by the Committee of the Whole.

The budget will be presented to the Board after public consultation to be revised and/or approved prior to submission to the Public Schools Finance Board.

The Board will include priority recommendations from various committees and administrative personnel. Regular reviews will take into consideration the analysis of previous budget preparations and the changing needs of the Division.
