Last Reviewed - 26/02/18

Division property may only be loaned if not required for normal use for a period of time and only if prior authorization has been given. Requests for loans to persons who are not employed by the Division or to outside agencies/businesses must be carefully screened and must have Senior Administrator approval prior to agreeing to the request.

Division-owned materials will not be removed from the school premises unless the appropriate Senior Administration and/or school administrative personnel have given authorization.
