All visitors will, upon entering a Fort La Bosse school, report directly to the school office.

Any individual observed in a school and not recognized as being a regular School Division staff member, volunteer or student of the school should be immediately reported to the Principal, or designate.

A principal or a person authorized by the school may direct any person to leave school premises who:

- (a) causes a disturbance or interruption
- (b) trespasses on school premises; or
- (c) is present on school premises for a purpose not reasonably associated with the normal functioning of the school.

A person who is directed to leave school premises;

- (a) shall immediately leave the premises; and
- (b) if the person has been given an oral or written notice to that effect by the principal or the Superintendent of Schools, they shall not enter on school premises again except with prior approval.
