

SPEECH AND LANGUAGE CLINICIAN

POSITION DESCRIPTION

POSITION TITLE: Speech & Language Clinician

REPORTS TO: Coordinator of Student Services

PURPOSE OF POSITION

To assist students with delays, disorders or deficits of communication skills in order to reach their maximum academic and social potential.

Duties and Responsibilities

Program Responsibilities

- ❖ The Speech & Language Clinician conducts screening and assessment, obtains diagnostic information, analyzes the information, and makes recommendations regarding programs and services.
- ❖ Ensure program delivery in the least restrictive environment
- ❖ Recommendations and clinical impressions are shared with parent, teacher, resource teacher and other stakeholders.
- ❖ Develop program outcomes, choose strategies and materials specific to child's needs.
- ❖ Aid in the development of individual education plans.
- ❖ Serve on multidisciplinary teams that may include parents, teacher, resource teacher, school administrator(s), and community agencies.
- ❖ Develop and implement training or information programs designed to enhance communication skills of children and appropriate to the skill level of professional staff, caregivers, and family members

Managing and Coordinating Service Delivery

- ❖ Maintain records in accordance with established rules, regulations, and ethical standards.
- ❖ Use appropriate diagnostic tools and plan intervention program
- ❖ Manage time, facilities, and resources to facilitate service delivery.
- ❖ Provides practical strategies and therapeutic techniques to Classroom/Resource Teacher, Educational Assistant, or primary caregivers.
- ❖ Promote effective interpersonal relations between clients & peers, and between colleagues
- ❖ Provide on-going support to student through supervision/monitoring of direct service provider.

Professional Responsibilities

- ❖ Participate in professional growth activities specific to area of personal/program need or interest
- ❖ Maintain clinical licensure in good standing
- ❖ Participate in FLBSD Supervision for Growth model of staff supervision