The Board will establish a Negotiations Committee which will be the Board's agent, representing management at the bargaining table.

The Secretary-Treasurer will serve as the Committee's administrative resource person and will attend negotiation meetings.

As the Chief Executive Officer and an employee of the Board, the Superintendent will perform such bargaining duties as specified by the Board.

The Board may, at any time during the negotiating process, with any of its negotiating groups, choose to access the resources available through its liaison with the Manitoba School Boards Association and/or any other individual(s) or group(s) that the Board deems to be in its interest to include while endeavouring to reach a satisfactory settlement.
