Resolution # - 138/19

Legal Reference - M.R. 250 Section 76

Last Reviewed - 10/06/19

The instructional school day will be not less than five and one half hours including recesses, but excluding midday intermission unless there is written approval from the Minister of Education.

Subject to the above, the Board may, by resolution duly recorded in it's minutes, determine the hours of opening and closing, as well as time and duration of the midday intermission.

The school day for kindergarten classes may vary according to the school and time schedule on which each student is placed.
